Left—JAY GOULD, who has been defending his championship squash title in the recent annual fall scratch tourney at the various university clubs in New York. Underwood.

The Chafing-dish Supper

The hour is late—the milk is sour, What can be done at such an hour? The friend in need, the friend indeed, The milk that always takes the lead Stands ready on the pantry rack— The name it bears is Krystalak.

The cost is low, the flavor fine, It beats the milkman every time, Whether rarebit or clam soup it be, Cafe-au-lait, cocoa, or tea— The lips of all do fairly smack At food so made with Krystalak.

KRYSTALAK is pure, sweet skimmed milk, with the water removed. Skimmed milk is recommended by the foremost physicians, dietitians, and U. S. Government Food Bulletins, because it is economical. It contains all the food value of the whole milk except the fat, which is supplied by the butter and meats in your daily diet. Add water and Krystalak dissolves instantly. No troublesome lumps form. No egg beater required.

Keep a supply of Krystalak on hand. Ask for the moisture-proof, blue and white striped pound package, which makes 5 quarts and requires no ice.

BUY IT TODAY AT YOUR GROCER'S

If your grocer does not keep Krystalak, write for a trial package, enclosing his name and 10c in stamps or coin to cover mailing.
